

The background of the menu cover is a vibrant, stylized illustration of various potted plants. In the top left, there are purple flowers with yellow centers in a red and orange patterned pot. To its right is a succulent with thick, light green leaves in a similar pot. On the right side, a white snowdrop flower is visible. At the bottom, there are pink flowers and a plant with large green leaves and red veins. The pots are decorated with various patterns like zig-zags and grids. A white rectangular box is centered on the page, containing the menu title and logo. A green circular badge is positioned in the upper right of the white box.
